Setup

- There are two opposing players using a FIDE regulation chess board.
- The two players will play according to the FIDE chess handbook (available for public view at <http://www.fide.com/fide/handbook?id=124&view=article>).
- Players will flip a coin to determine who starts as white.

Tournament

- Play will consist of a seeded, single elimination tournament. This means that the highest seeded team of one side will play the lowest seeded opponent of the opposing side in the first round and play will continue until only one team remains undefeated.
- Games will be timed with a FIDE approved chess clock with 15 minute/side time controls.
